Dawood Public School
Course Outline 2016-17
Business Studies
XI

Endorsed Text book:

Further Reading:

MONTHLY DISTRIBUTION OF SYLLABUS

August

10. Marketing, Competition and the Customers (Borrington,K.) Page Nos. 131 - 141
   - Role of Marketing
   - Understanding Market Changes
   - What is meant by a Market?
   - Market Segments

Learning outcomes:
After reading this unit the students will be able to:
   - Define and explain the role of marketing.
   - Explain why market changes occur, such as when spending patterns change or there is increased competition, and how businesses can respond to these changes.
   - Understand the difference between mass marketing and niche marketing
   - Define market segmentations, explain its benefits and recommend and justify an appropriate method of segmentation in given circumstances.

11. Market research (Borrington,K.) Page Nos. 142 -155
   - Why is market research needed?
   - Primary research
   - Methods of primary research
   - Secondary research
   - Who carries out market research?
   - Accuracy of market research information
   - Presentation of data from market research
   - Alternative ways of presenting information for course work
Learning outcomes:
After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- appreciate the need for market research
- identify when primary or secondary research would be suitable to gather data for a particular purpose
- understand how a business carries out market research and limitations of market research
- understand the factors that influence the accuracy of market research
- Present, analyze and interpret simple market research data

Assessment Method: Home assignment, test and activity.

September

12. The marketing mix: product and packaging (Borrington, K.) Page Nos. 156 - 167

- The role of product in the marketing mix
- Product development
- The importance of branding
- The role of packaging in the marketing mix
- The product life cycle

Learning outcomes:
After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- identify the different types of products which are sold
- understand what makes a product successful
- understand how a new product is developed
- understand what is meant by brand name and why it is important
- identify the important characteristics of the packaging for a product
- identify the different stages of the product life cycle from information about sales, pricing, promotion and profitability
- ways to extend the product life cycle

Assessment Method: Assignment, test and activity.

13. The marketing mix: price (Borrington, K.) Page Nos. 168 - 174

- The role of price in the marketing mix
- Price determination in a free market
- Pricing strategies

Learning outcomes:
After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- understand how prices are determined in the market and what influences demand and supply of products
- understand the different pricing strategies a business can use
- select a suitable strategy for a particular business situation/objective
Assessment Method: Assignment, test and activity.

October

14. The marketing mix: promotion (Borrington,K.) Page Nos. 168 - 174

- Advertising
- Promotion
- Personal selling
- Public relations
- Customer service

Learning outcomes:

After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- understand the different aims of promotion
- select appropriate types of advertising for different products/business objectives
- select appropriate types of promotion for different products/business objectives
- understand what is meant by public relations
- plan a promotional and advertising campaign

Assessment Method: Assignment, test and activity.

15. The marketing mix: place (Borrington,K.) Page Nos. 175 - 187

- The role of place in the marketing mix
- Channels of distribution
- Drawing up a marketing plan/strategy
- The nature and impact of legal controls related to marketing [NEW]
- The opportunities and problems of entering new markets abroad [NEW]

Learning outcomes:

After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- understand the different channels of distribution
- select the most suitable channel of distribution for a given product
- Explain the importance of different elements of the marketing mix in influencing consumer decisions in given circumstances
- Recommend and justify an appropriate marketing strategy in given circumstances
- Identify the impact of legal controls on marketing strategy, e.g. misleading promotion, faulty and dangerous goods [NEW]
- Identify growth potential of new markets in other countries[NEW]
- Explain problems of entering foreign markets, e.g. cultural differences and lack of knowledge [NEW]
- Benefits and limitations of methods to overcome such problems, e.g. joint ventures[NEW]
Technology and the marketing mix: [NEW]

After reading this unit the student will be able to:

Define and explain the concept of e-commerce
The opportunities and threats of e-commerce to business and consumers
Use of the internet and social networks for promotion

Assessment Method: Assignment, test and activity.

November

- Government Economic Objectives
- Government Economic Policies
- How Businesses react to changes in Economic Policies

Learning outcomes:

After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- Explain the Economic Objectives of Governments.
- Understand the Business Cycle
- Understand the different types of government economic policy
- Explain the ways in which business activity might be affected by government economic decisions and how businesses might respond.

Assessment Method: Test

Revision for Mid Term Examinations

December

Mid Term Examinations

Scheme of Assessment

Candidates must be entered for the following papers:

(i) Paper 1

(ii) Paper 2

Description of papers

Paper 1 (1½ hours)

A paper containing short-answer questions and structured/data response questions.

There will be no choice of questions.

Paper 2 (1½ hours)
Candidates will be presented with a business situation or problem, and required to answer questions arising from it.

There will be no choice of questions.

January

27. Environmental and ethical issues (Borrington,K.) Page Nos. 329 -339

- Business activity and the environment.
- Externalities
- Sustainable development
- Responding to environmental pressures and opportunities
- Ethical issues

Learning outcomes:

After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- Explain how business activity can damage the environment and lead to externalities.
- Define ways in which businesses can respond to the threats and opportunities of environmental issues such as aiming for sustainable development.
- Explain the role of pressure groups in influencing business decisions.
- Define ethical decision making and explain why some businesses consider this important.

Assessment Method: Assignment and test.

- Globalisation
- Why some governments introduce tariffs and quotas
- Multinational businesses
- Exchange Rates

Learning outcomes:

After reading this unit the students will be able to:

- understand what exchange rates are and how changes in them affect business, specially importers and exporters
- Explain what globalization is and why it is important
- Explain why multinational businesses are created and understand their impact.

Assessment Method: Assignment and test.

REVIEW OF NEW CONTENT IN THE SYLLABUS

- Importance of micro-finance in developing economies
- Maintaining customer loyalty; building customer relationships
- Benefits and limitations of different communication methods including those based on information technology (IT)
• Benefits and limitations of part-time and full-time workers
• Objectives of social enterprises
• Why some (new or established) businesses fail:
  • Causes of business failure, e.g. lack of management skills, changes in the business environment
  • Why new businesses are at a greater risk of failing
• Enterprise and entrepreneurship:
  • Characteristics of successful entrepreneurs
  • Contents of a business plan and how business plans assist entrepreneurs
  • Why and how governments support business start-ups, e.g. grants, training

February

Past Papers practice

Revision

March

Mock Examinations

Scheme of Assessment

Candidates must be entered for the following papers:

(i) Paper 1
(ii) Paper 2

Paper Weighting

Paper 1- 50%
Paper 2- 50%

Description of papers

Paper 1 (1½ hours)
A paper containing short-answer questions and structured/data response questions.

There will be no choice of questions.

Paper 2 (1½ hours)
Candidates will be presented with a business situation or problem, and required to answer questions arising from it.

There will be no choice of questions.

 Subject to change on the discretion of the teacher.