

Creative Expression

Primary

In a world where demand for meaningful expression is increasing every day, DPS Saturday School is proud to announce a unique online parent-child program that will inculcate and enhance this essential skill. Parents who can invest a bare fifteen minutes with their child to enjoy virtual creative reading are invited to register for this sensational session. Weekly the facilitator will upload thrilling age appropriate e-books with assisting renditions for improved pronunciation and enhanced vocabulary. The idea is to enjoy family time while wafting through a sea of words which aim for cultural awareness; a journey through the wonderous lands of our beautiful world.

Bring back the rocking chair and the warm hugs; bring back the colourful cushions and rugs; bring back the excitement of story-telling and watch young eyes light up in a mesmerizing world of fantasy and fable....

And Saturday School Creative Expression sessions will work in collaboration with the provided uploads and present fun filled interactive development for intonation, clarity and tonal enhancement – the perfect platform for improved public speaking.
