

Taekwondo

A Levels

The resounding success of Taekwondo classes throughout the school session has compelled a promising handshake between Saturday School facilities and Senior Grand Master M. Najam Khan, Black Belt; the celebrated founder of Taekwondo in Pakistan. This popular and healthy discipline building sport is tailor made for skills such as board-breaking, kicking, blocking and striking.

In a world of fast increasing screen dependence, students are missing out on imperative physical coordination, flexibility, balance and mental acumen. Here's an opportunity to change that!
