

The Etiquette Journey

Primary

In what way should we present ourselves in a social situation? What are the rules for fine dining? What do we wear at different occasions? What is the proper way to address the various people around you whether they are teachers or peers? How should you react in a situation that may make you feel awkward? This, and much much more in the six week programme being launched by DPS as a part of its revolutionary Saturday School.

To be conducted by expert trainers from the Development Minds Academy, this programme will dramatically improve and enhance the poise, decorum in speaking, self-confidence and everyday mannerisms in your children.

A set of training to revive and rejuvenate important values for the dynamic twenty first century. DPS brings this wonderful training right to you...
