Gardening Project

Get started on planting for the season, by using an egg carton/egg shells/used paper cups to sow seeds, these are common household products and are biodegradable.

To begin, take an empty egg carton/egg shell/used paper cups. Using plastic wrap, cover the top part of the container. The plastic wrap is helpful in maintaining the warmth and moisture of the seeds and seedlings.

Be sure to poke holes in the bottom. The holes will allow excess water to escape, thus protecting the seeds and seedlings from over-watering.

Your task: is to plant only fruit seeds such as lime, lemon, chikoo, custard apple, papaya whatever is available in the season. Bring the sprouted plant to school after the vacation.
