Scars to your beautiful She just wants to be beautiful She goes unnoticed, she knows no limits She craves attention, she praises an image She prays to be sculpted by the sculptor Oh, she don’t see the light that’s shining Deeper than the eyes can find it Maybe we have made her blind So she tries to cover up her pain and cut her woes away ‘Cause cover girls don’t cry after their face is made  But there’s a hope that’s waiting for you in the dark You should know you’re beautiful just the way you are And you don’t have to change a thing, the world could change its heart No scars to your beautiful, we’re stars and we’re beautiful Oh-oh, oh-oh And you don’t have to change a thing, yhe world could change its heart No scars to your beautiful, we’re stars and we’re beautiful  She has dreams to be an envy, so she’s starving You know, covergirls eat nothing She says beauty is pain and there’s beauty in everything What’s a little bit of hunger?	Demons When the days are cold And the cards all fold And the saints we see Are all made of gold When your dreams all fail And the ones we hail Are the worst of all And the blood’s run stale I want to hide the truth I want to shelter you But with the beast inside There’s nowhere we can hide No matter what we breed We still are made of greed This is my kingdom come This is my kingdom come When you feel my heat Look into my eyes It’s where my demons hide It’s where my demons hide Don’t get too close It’s dark inside It’s where my demons hide It’s where my demons hide When the curtain’s call Is the last of all When the lights fade out All the sinners crawl So they dug your grave And the masquerade
